

Forest Stewardship Planning Quiz

Key

1. What is forest stewardship?
d) Answers A and B.
2. The forest stewardship planning process can help you:
d) All of the above.
3. Which of the following is NOT needed in a stewardship plan?
c) An inventory of each and every tree on your property.
4. To receive benefits under your state's forest tax law, you may need:
c) A management plan.
5. A professional who helps you develop a stewardship plan and address your ownership objectives is referred to as:
a) A forester.
6. The first step to developing a forest stewardship plan is to.....
c) Seek professional assistance.
7. Before choosing a forester, you should ask her/him for the following
d) b and c
8. Timber Brokers are:
b) Individuals that lack education and experience
9. Which one of these should be considered only after considering all of the other listed factors when selecting a forester?
d) Price for his/her services.
10. In addition to selecting a qualified forester, you should select:
d) Answers A and B.
11. The key portion of your plan is:
a) A statement of your ownership goals.
12. A topographic map or aerial photograph can be useful for:
c) Looking at the general habitat features that comprise your land.
13. Because you probably will not be able to achieve all your goals right away, which of the following is a good idea?
b) Create a step-by-step ten-year activity schedule.
14. What should be done to your forest stewardship plan each year?
c) You should review your plan and activities that are scheduled.